FORD'S THEATER .- "The Forty Thieves," dramatized from one of the most interesting of the tales of the Arabian nights, was performed last night for the first time and was immensely successful, the characters being all well cast. In all plays of this character gorgeous scenery and views, splendid costumes and fine music are necessary adjuncts, and certainly the painters and musicians have done all that could be required of them in this matter.

CANTERBURY .- Never a week passes without some novelty being produced at Canter-bury Hall, and the bill of this week is long and varied by new songs and dances, Ethiopian acts, tight-rope performances, &c., and a new local and sensation drama. Marietta Ravel's

THE BROWN-WILEY CASE.-In the Circuit Court yesterday, the case of Emily F. Wiley against Marshal Brown was continued before

Judge Wylie: Wm. Slade. (colored.) sworn.—Testified to having lived in the Brown family for years, and to Tillotson keeping company with Mrs. Brown. On one occasion Mrs. B. said that if Tillotson did not treat her better she would Jeave him. Mrs. Brown also said that Tillotson treated her daughter (Emily) as well as it had been his own. Witness recollects that when the boys (Tillotson and Marshal Brown) were going to school in Alexandria, that they usually came up about once a month. To the best of witness's knowledge Tillotson did not make the acquaintance of Mrs. Brown until she lived in the B street house. Mrs. Wheeler, worn, and testified that Mrs.

Brown told her hat Emily was the child of Dr. Miller, of Baltimore. Justice Wm. John Bush, (colored.) - Witness was frequently at Mrs. Brown's house, on B street, and had seen Tillotson Brown there, but he does not think that Tillotson visited Mrs. Brown until after Georgiana's death. Mrs. Elizabeth Roby, sworn.-Witness was in the Brown family for over thirty years. When the boys went to school they had but little money. When Tillotson was very ill, in 1845 or 1816, he stated that he was not the father of Emily or any other child. On another occasion Mrs. Wiley's children came to see him, and witness told him his grand children were there, when he said, "They are not my grand children, but Emily Wiley's children.' On cross-examination, witness stated that the Brown family were much opposed to his keeping company with Mrs. Brown, and his father, Jesse Brown, said if he did not quit such company, he would cut him off. Remegius Burch, sworn .- Witness was doing some work at Mrs. Brown's in 1846 or 1847, and heard Mrs. Brown say that Mr. Brown was and the father of Emily. John R. Grimes .- Witness heard Mrs. Brown say that she took that name independent of Mr. Brown.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

IMPURE BREATH.—Among all the disagreeable consequences that follow fast the decay of the teeth, an impure breath must be the most unpleasant and mortifying to its possessor, as it is the most inexcusable and offensive in society. How often its possessor experiences a distant coldness shown him even from the best of friends, or perhaps the one most fondly cherished, from this source. You are ignorant of the cause yourself, the subject is so delicate—your most intimate friend will not mention it. Why not remove this one great barrier to your health, beauty and happiness at once, by using that justly popular Dentifrice, fragrant Sozo dont, the most convenient pleasant and efficacious gem for the toilet the world has ever produced.
